

2509 Seiferth Rd, Unit 5
East of Pflaum and Stoughton Rd.
WWW.CLAYCIRCUS.COM

SPRING/SUMMER CERAMICS CLASSES!

LAST TWO SESSIONS --SIGN UP NOW (Class sizes are limited!) – I am taking a break from teaching for a while to make my own work!!!

Please note: I am combining both Pottery I and Pottery II into one class, but to compensate, I am lengthening the class from 2 hours to 3 hours. The last hour of class is optional work time; NO NEW DEMONSTRATIONS will be shown.

Pottery I: (Intro) For the uninitiated wheel thrower or someone on a vacation from working with clay. Learn to center, trim, and throw as well as basic handbuilding techniques. Free out-of-class studio time available to enrolled students. Six weeks class for $135/person. Price includes a free clay tool kit. Clay must be purchased on-site for $14.00/bag.

COMBINED WITH

Pottery II: (Intermediate) Emphasis on making larger vessels, vases, plate and teapots, as well as intermediate handbuilding techniques. Free out-of-class studio time available to enrolled students. Six weeks class for $135/person. Price includes a free clay tool kit. Clay must be purchased in studio for $14.00/bag.

Section 1: Wednesdays, April 28 – June 2 6:00-9:00PM
Section 2: Wednesdays, June 23 – July 28 6:00-9:00PM

All classes are taught by Laura Hammond, trained in Ceramic Arts at the University of Washington in Seattle. Laura, a Wisconsin native, has recently returned from New York City, where she co-founded a Ceramic Art Gallery and group studio. Working with ceramics since 1992, her work includes both sculpture and art pottery.

To register, fill out and return bottom portion:

Name:

Session:

Address:

Cost:

Phone:

Total $ enclosed:

Send check (sorry no credit cards accepted) made out to CLAY CIRCUS to 2509 Seiferth Rd, Unit 5, Madison, WI 53714. All cancellations/changes must be made 1 week prior to class, or there will be no refund. Classes may be cancelled due to low enrollment. Please call if you have any questions or would like to confirm registration by phone 608-222-3029. Hope to see you soon!